'71 TIGER

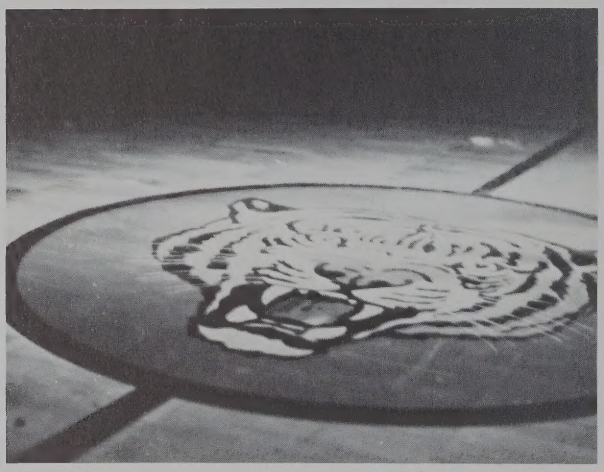
Tiger, Tiger
burning bright . . .

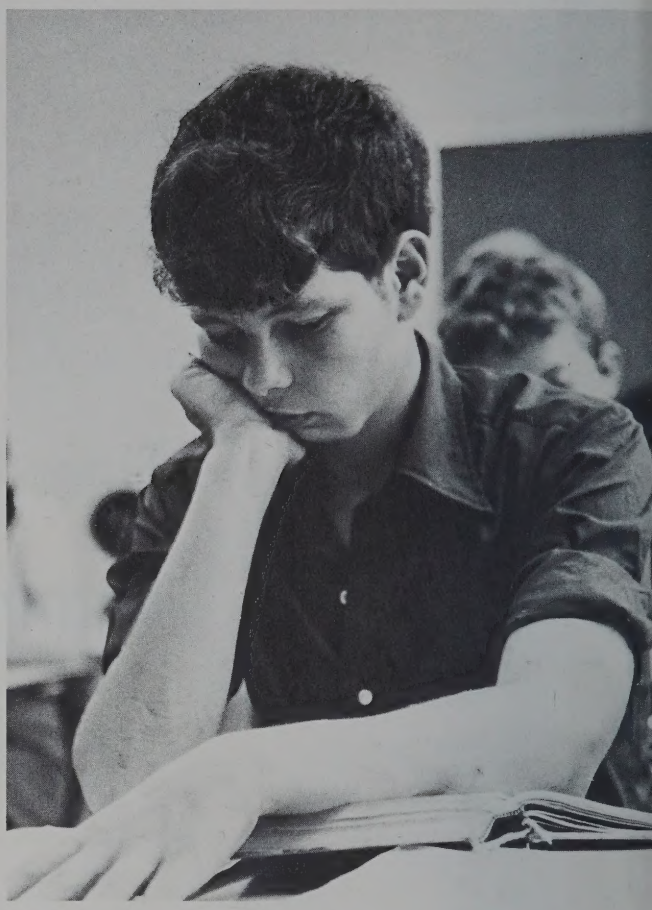
1971 Volume 5
Bay Senior High
Bay St. Louis,
Mississippi

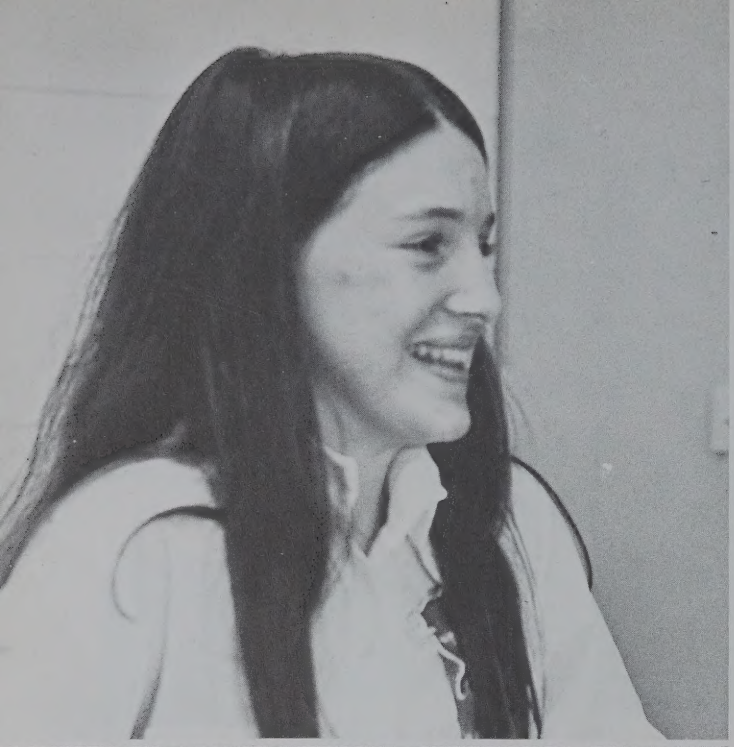
Plagued by questions without answers,
The youthful Tiger stalks the truth,
Stalks in desperate, desperate searching,
Hearing echoes, empty echoes
From the "forest of the night."

"Who is this reflection?
For what purpose am I here?"
Pleads the lonely, lonely Tiger,
"Who is needing? Who is calling
From the 'forest of the night'?"

From beyond the blackness
Comes a whisper from the night,
"Search your truth from what surrounds you;
Seek your answer in your life."







This is me . . .

this is
what I see,

This is me . . .

this is
what I feel,

This is me . . .

this is where I am going.

Crowded, my life is so crowded,
Not enough time to do the things I want to do.
Faces, so many faces,
Not enough time to show all of them to you.
See, you know what I mean
When I say nothing can come between.
For you, I'd do anything for you
As long as you're happy where you are.
Happy, we'll stay happy
As long as I know that you're aware of loving me.
See, you know what I mean
When I say nothing can come between.

Sometimes

I get tired

of people

telling me things

and then

asking me

how much I remember.

What I think

I want

is to look around

and

find things out myself

and then

try to make it

on my own.

What in the World Are You Doing for the Rest of Your Life?

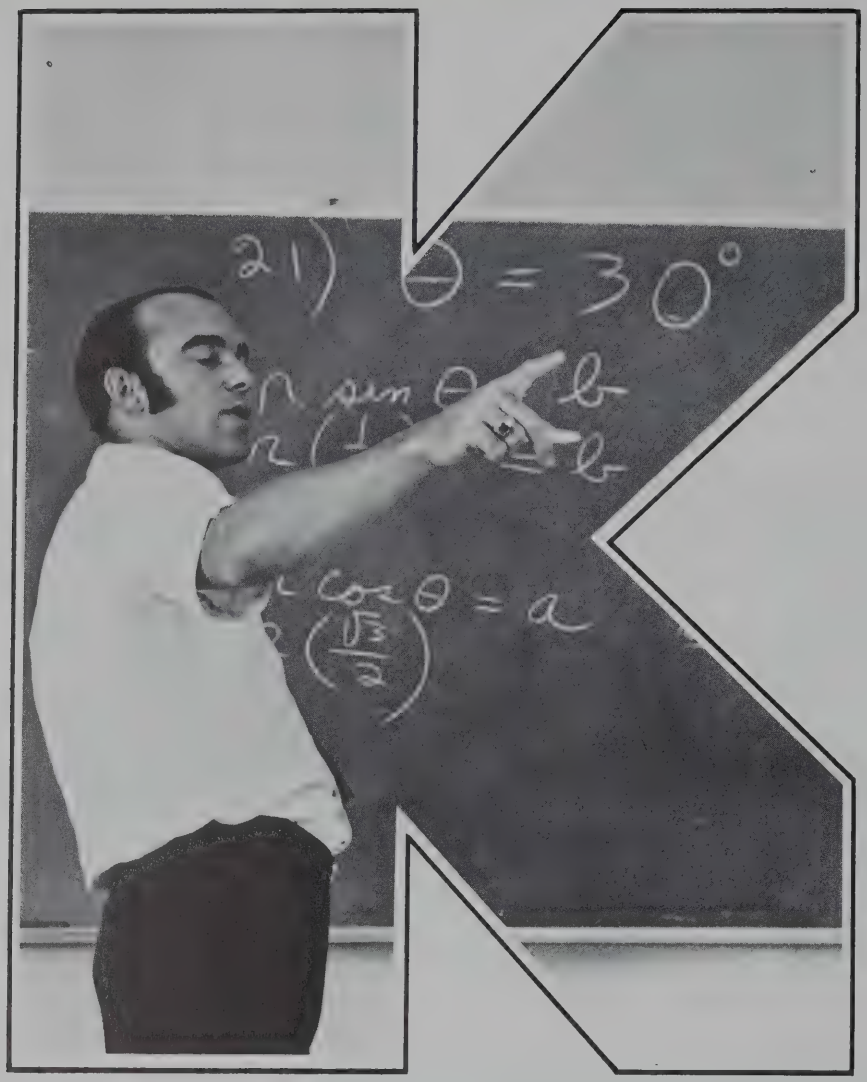
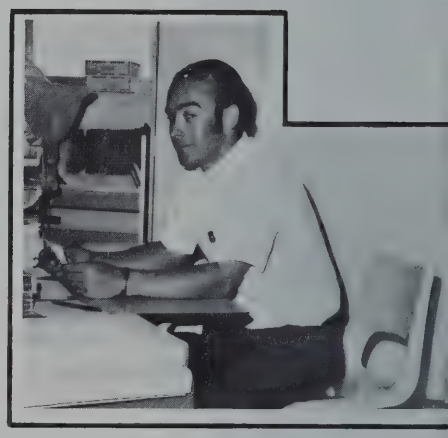
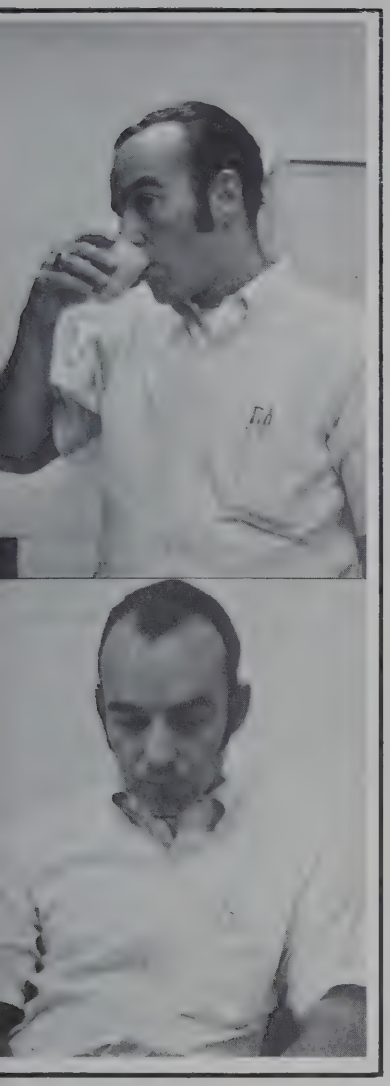
This Is the First Day . . .

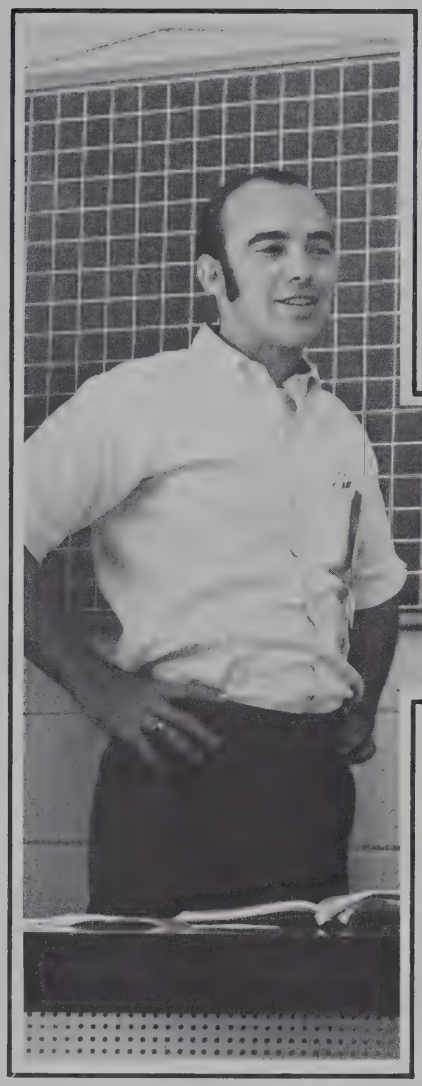


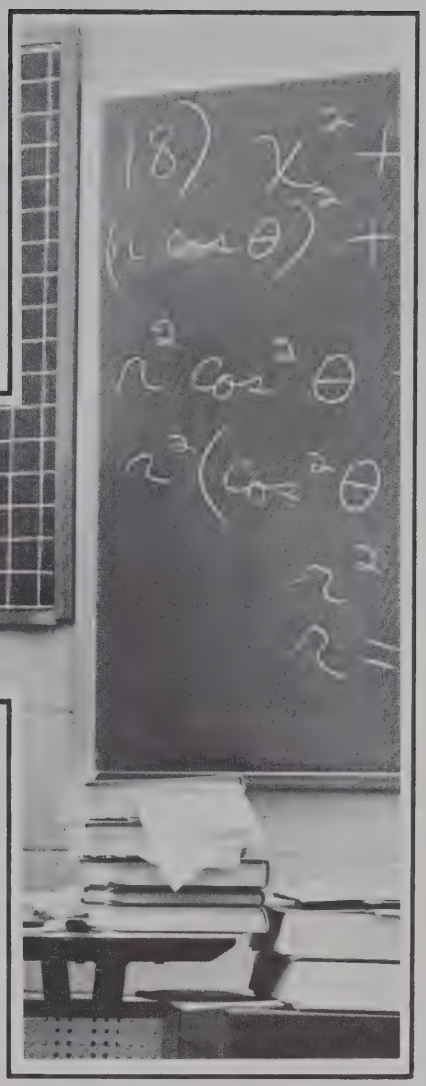


It's a time of searching through the roughness which is Life,
Seeking a guide - someone who knows what it's all about,
Who has been there and can help us by being honest, to the point
of being almost cruel;
Someone who will encourage us to go on when we're ready to quit,
Yet will bring us down, hard, when we think we own the world.

But that's what we really want:
Someone who truly cares,
Who is a part of us,
A part of our time.







Some people say, "I care." Others just show it . . .

"All right, you dizzy sophomores, keep it moving; up against the lockers if you want to talk!"

"There's no discrimination in this class, everybody cuts up everybody."

"You've got to fight it now; when you get out of here no one's going to do anything for you."

"Hang in there, Zero, you'll make it."

"Man pats himself on the back, thinking he's so great for 'discovering' something that was put here by God a long time ago."

"All right, dust the tops!"

"The public schools of this nation, this state, this region are precious things. We as individuals forget this fact sometimes. And we ignore it a good portion of the time. We must stop and think and ask, has any other major country ever completely adopted the lofty idea that a man ought to be judged on what he was or could be rather than on the accident of birth and station? Has any other country ever offered through one democratizing institution, so much hope for all of its citizens? America over a period of years has educated a nation rather than elite, the aristocrat, or the ruling class. This overall approach to education has made this country the strongest nation the world has ever known."

Message to the Seniors

If you think you are beaten, you are.

If you think you dare not, you don't.

If you'd like to win, but think you can't,

It's almost a cinch you won't.

Life's battles don't always go

To the stronger or faster man.

But soon or late the man who wins

Is the one who thinks he can.
